Dear Pat:

We are preparing a response to your inquiry. However, some questions arose during the process of preparing our response. Due to the weekend, and federal holiday on Monday, February 19, 2001, we are requesting an extension of 10 days so that there is time to contact your office to answer our questions to finalize our response.

Due to the nature of the hour of the day and time frame of the response, we are making this request via facsimile. The letter will follow via U.S. Mail.

We will contact you via telephone on Tuesday, February 20, 2001, to discuss our questions.

Respectfully submitted,
